Consternation in Constantinople in Consequence of the Russian Demands.

By Cable to the News.

BELGRADE, May 18.—A further misunderstanding between Prince Milan and the ministry, respecting the Tapalo revolt, has occurred. The Prince will not admit the competency of the military tribunal that passed sentence on the Aulians, such as ex-Minister Thumitch, but the cabinet intends to resign if Prince Milan persists.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 18.—It is reported by good authority, that Todleben sent a note to the Porte yesterday, saying he was compelled, by necessity, by the military situation to make the following demands, and requesting the Turkish government to accede as soon as possible: First, the evacuation of Shumla, Varna and Batoum; secondly, the removal of the Turkish camp at Mastka; and thirdly, permission to occupy Buyukdire. It is considered almost certain that the Turks will fight rather than yield.

A Reuters telegram, dated Constantinople, May 17th, says: "A regiment of Cossacks advanced to the Turkish lines near Belgrade, yesterday, and summoned the Turks to withdraw toward Buyukdire. The Turkish officer replied that he must apply to the Porte for instructions before doing so. The Porte has also received advices that the Russians are advancing nearer to Gallipoli. The Russians insist that these movements are for hygienic reasons.

LONDON, May 18.—The news from Constantinople has a tendency to check the optimist conclusions. The news is not fully credited, but it is thought, if true, Todleben's demand will be overruled at St. Petersburg, now that peaceful views prevail. Though Todleben's demands are not in the nature of an ultimatum there being a strong pressure brought to bear on the Porte, great alarm exists at Constantinople, but an attack on the city or the forcible occupation of the shores of the Bosphorus is discredited, as the Russian Minister presented his credentials to the Sultan to-day and had an opportunity to meet the British Minister Tuesday.

The Times says: War has already cost Russia a hundred million of pounds.

Objects of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

By telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, May 18.—The National Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians adopted the following unanimously:

Resolved, That if thre is anything in our Order at present in opposition to the doctrines of the church, all of us here, obedient children, are willing to rectify it as soon as her decision is properly announced, but until that decision is enunciated, we deem any attack upon the principles and objects of the Order, no matter from what source, it emanates unwarrantable abuse of an organization whose only objects are christian charity, unity, and mutual benevolence. Respect of the civil law and our admiration of free institutions in this free country are as steadfast and undying as our devotion to the church, whose teachings we revere.

Reforms in Mercantile Matters.

By Telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, May 17.—A general meeting of the New England Shoe and Leather Association was held to-day, at Shoe and Leather Exchange, to consider mercantile status and several matters which have become obnoxious to the interests of trade, such as lengthened credits, guaranteeing prices, reduction on goods, and countermanding orders. After discussion of these questions by prominent members of the association a committee was appointed, who reported a series of resolutions recommending to the trade the discontinuance of dating bills beyond the time when goods are shipped, and to reduce the time from six to four months. The resolutions further discountenance the custom of guaranteeing prices beyond the time fixed for delivery of goods, also the customs of making reclamation on goods bought and ordered by sample and the countermanding of orders where purchasers names have been stamped upon goods. These resolutions were all adopted with another resolving that no compromise shall be made with a debtor who has misrepresented his financial standing.

A WOMAN KILLS HER MOTHER.

Frosty Notes from the West---Wheat Damaged by Rust.

Correspondence of the News.

LENOIR, N. C., May 16.

I have just heard of a terrible case of matricide occurring in an adjoining county, (Wilkes.) Mrs. Watson, an elderly lady, was beaten to death by her daughter, Mary Hamby, a woman of disreputable character. The murdered woman had been remonstrating with her child, when words led to blows with a stick by the latter, which resulted in death in a few days. The prisoner was placed in Wilkes county jail, on last Saturday, 10th. The parties lived near Elkville, on the Yadkin River.

RUST IN WHEAT.

I regret to report the wheat crop of this county very seriously injured by the rust. The acreage sown was largely in excess of the previous year; but some of our farmers say they will not make their seed; and I hear of some fields that will not even be worth cutting. Cause—suffered to be too much wet and cold weather.

COOL WEATHER.

The Almanac makers have made a wonderful hit in a prediction for frost this morning. So far as I have heard, there was considerable frost throughout this county, but no serious damage done. The weather has been unusually cold for several days. I see gentlemen on our streets, with overcoats and overshoes on—an exceedingly rare thing here for May.

POLITICAL.

The Democratic Executive Committee for this county, have called a meeting to nominate candidates for county officers. I will report the result in the future.

NO NAME.

Death's Doings in Wilmington.

CAPT. THOS. C. DEROSSET.

Correspondence of the News.

WILMINGTON, May 18, 1878.

His many friends in our State and wherever else he was known, will be pained to hear of the decease of that gallant, christian gentlemen, Capt. T. C. DeRosset, of Wilmington. While in command of his company, the "Whiting Rifles," at the memorial ceremonies of the 10th May, he was stricken with paralysis. Since that time he has lain helpless on his bed, his friends for some time hopeful of recovery. But, death's hand upon him, he weaker grew, until for the past few days the case was deemed a hopeless one. On yesterday evening, at 4 o'clock, he died. Sad fate for one so young, so generous, so largely endowed with all those graces which mark the true gentleman. Fervent in piety he was zealous in all christian work. For some time past he had been superintendent of the Sunday School of the Church of Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D, and his earnest, devoted efforts to build up the school, had met with sad successs as to render it far better than ever before.

At the time of his death he was in the 33d year of his age.

WM. F. POTTER, ESQ.

Wilmington Star. 18th.

Mr. W. F. Potter, has been lingering for some time past with that fell-destroyer of the human race, consumption. A sad feature connected with his death, which occurred at Fairfield farm, near this city, a few minutes before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was the fact that his wife, who is daughter of the late Wm. A. Wright, has thus been bereft of both father and husband within the short space of three days. His funeral will take place at St. James' Church on Sunday, at 4 p. m., thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

Both of these gentlemen were highly esteemed, and their departure from earth just as they had fully entered the battle of life has cast a gloom upon the entire community.

ATLANTA CONFERENCE.

Will Not Choose a Bishop—Fraternal Messengers-Church Discipline.

From our Special Reporter.

ATLANTA, May 17, 1878.

FOURTEENTH DAY.

The Conference was opened with religious services, conducted by Rev. H. A. C. Walker, of South Carolina. Bishop Pierce presided to-day.

Dr. Miller, of North Carolina, asked and obtained leave of absence. A great many memorials and petitions were presented and referred to the appropriate committees.

Dr. Lovick Pierce suggested some changes in the form of reception of church members, which were laid on the table until they could be published.

Bishop Paine made some statements in regard to an estate in which the M. E. Church, South, has a legacy.

NO BISHOPS TO BE ELECTED.

The following resolution, introduced by the Committee on Episcopacy yesterday, was made the special order for 10 o'clock to-day:

"Resolved, That it is inexpedient and unnecessary at this time to increase the number of bishops."

When the hour arrived the resolution was taken up, and Rev. P. A. Peterson, of Virginia, moved as a substitute that the Conference elect two bishops.

Rev. Mr. Veal moved the previous question, which was sustained, and thus all debate was cut off. The substitute was put and lost. The original resolution was then put and carried by a large majority So contrary to the expectations of almost everybody the General Conference will not elect any new bishops at all.

FRATERNAL MESSENGERS AGAIN.

We have had another day rich in fraternal feeling. Drs. Clark, Barr and Henderson, fraternal delegates to this General Conference from the M. P. Church, were received to-day. Drs. Clark and Barr delivered very able, eloquent and impressive addresses. During these addresses at one time the audience would weep in tenderness and at another time would almost be convulsed with laughter. It was really a treat to listen to these gentlemen—the Conference enjoyed their speeches richly. Dr. Henderson was not well enough to speak, Bishop Pierce in his usual happy style responded to these fraternal addresses with great credit to himself and entire satisfaction to the Conference and audience. At the conclusion of Bishop Pierce's remarks the Conference arose and sung "All hail the power of Jesus' name," then resumed the regular business. We had a lengthy and rather dull debate to-day on the rights of members expelled from the church; pending which discussion, the hour for adjournment arrived and after the usual announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction.

THE NATIONAL PHILANTHROPISTS.

Association of Insane Asylum Superintendents—High Honor to North Carolina.

Our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 17, 1878.

The National Association of Superintendents of Asylums for the Insane is at present in session in Washington,—some sixty or seventy institutions, including those in the Carolinas, being represented. It is an assemblage of fine looking, thinking and intellectual men, many of whom have attained distinction in their philanthropic speciality, as well as in other branches of scientific pursuits. I had the pleasure of forming one of the audience which assembled in Willard's Hall, on Wednesday evening, to hear an essay or lecture by Dr. Eugeme Grissom, Superintendent of our Asylum at Raleigh. The compliment extended to Dr. Grissom in the invitation to prepare the paper was every way flattering, and the manner in which he discharged the duty was gratifying to our North Carolina pride and every way creditable to the author. The subject discussed was the general one of Medical Jurisprudence, in its application to Insanity; or, rather, the value of expert testimony on issues of insanity in trials at law, and covered a comprehensive field of thought, and developed a wide range of research. The style was scholarly and cultured, and the treatment garnished with so much of interesting incident and historic reference to causes celebre as to hold the attention of even the non-professional auditor. The Doctor's denunciation of those who sell skilled opinions for money, in matters affecting the cause of justice, or on threats involving the human life, was terribly severe; and the more interest attached to his utterances, as they were understood to refer to some comparatively recent professional instances of the sort in this country. Dr. Grissom was highly and deservedly complimented for his valuable contribution to the objects and usefulness of the Association.

BUTLER FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

The "Sun" Declares for Butler Against "The Southern Rebels."

From the New York Sun, May 13.

There are a few former rebels in Congress who, if they have ever heard the war is over, seem to think the South was the conqueror; and there are a few Northern doughfaces in Congress of such abject nature that they prostrate themselves to the manes of the departed institution of slavery, and remembering the despotic sway it once held, conceive that its very ghost may lift some one of their number, more fortunate than the rest, into the White House.

Vain and fatal delusions! It is said Democrats will start in the contest in 1880 with all the old slave States solid in their favor, and that they are certain of the comparatively small additional number of electoral votes requisite to a majority. That makes easy reckoning. It is a simple sum. Anybody can do it.

There happens, however, to be another, just as easy and just as simple. If all the old slave States can combine, so can all the old free States. The only thing needed for this is an occasion made plain to the comprehension of the masses. Then there is this difference: all the old slave States combined still require help to elect their candidate; whereas the old free States combined need no help, but in themselves constitute a majority, and can elect their candidate without extraneous aid.

The Democratic candidate in 1876, was fairly elected. So we maintain on the evidence, at all events. Certain old rebels in the Democratic party traded off the election to the friends of Mr. Hayes. They connived at the fraud by which Hayes was counted in, and they now conspire with their Northern doughface Democratic allies to block the way to an investigation which would uncover and expose the great fraud. Do men who conduct themselves in this way suppose that the mass of the Northern Democracy are so base-born, so absolutely wanting in self-respect as to continue to act, to co-operate with them? What guarantee can these treacherous men give that they would not again sell out the party on the heels of a second victory?

The North—the old free States—will not lose sight of the fact that the Democratic candidate, who, after he had been lawfully elected, was sold out by Southern rebels, was pledged against the payment of the rebel war claims. It is evident that this now constitutes the greatest barrier to an investigation which would be liable to put Hayes out and Tilden in.

It is all very well to talk sentimentally about burying the dead past, only we want the rebellion buried at the bottom—that is all.

We regard the question of putting an end to the election frauds of 1876 as the supreme political question of the times. We are therefore for those who are with us on that issue, and protest against those who are against us. If a pronounced Republican like Gen. Butler or Senator Howe should take the lead in exposing these frauds and destroying their fruits, we would support him for President in 1880 in preference to any Democratic candidate who is opposed to the investigation or lukewarm about it.

The next Presidential election is not yet decided.

GRANGE MASS-MEETING.

The Patrons Pic-nicking--Governor Vance Present---Two Thousand People.

Special to the News.

COMPANY SHOPS, May 18.

This is a great day in Alamance. As previously announced, this is the day for the annual Pic-nic of Howell Grange, Patrons of Husbandry. During the past week all necessary arrangements have been made, and on yesterday a stand was erected in front of the North Carolina Railroad office, and appropriately decorated with evergreens, cereals, farm products, &c. Upon the porch, above the stand, is a large plow covered with evergreens; just above this, is a large basket filled with cereals, &c. In front of these is the inscription, INDUSTRY. Around the porch are many hanging baskets of beautiful flowers.

GREAT CROWD—GOVERNOR VANCE AND DR. DAVIS.

Notwithstanding the indications for rain; the morning cold, cloudy and damp, there are near, if not quite, two thousand people present. Governor Vance and Dr. Davis arrived yesterday, and Dr. Davis is speaking at this writing, 11:30 A. M., and all appear to be interested. Col. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture, is expected at 1 o'clock this P. M.

PROFESSOR JOSEPH HENRY.

A Great Man of Science---A Christian Philosopher.

Our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 17.

The death of Professor Joseph Henry, of the Smithsonian Institution, makes a sad void in the scientific world. Though he has left many monuments and memorials of his inventive genius behind him, what a melancholy reflection it is that the mind that created and shone through them all must depart with its tenement of clay! Prof. H.'s greatest achievements have been in the domain of electricity, and it is asserted that Morse's idea of the Electro-Magnetic Telegraph was derived from him. He was a Christian Philosopher, who saw in science the hand-maid of religion. Some one, once, spoke to him of the conflict between science and religion. He said, in reply, that the person who thought there was such a conflict "must be very young in science or very ignorant of religion." The swift-winged messenger that he lured from the skies has carried the intelligence of his death across oceans and continents, arousing the regrets and the homage of potentates and peoples.

Open and Above Board.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

There is a great deal of good sense in the following slip from the Pee Dee Herald:

"Cicero W. Harris, Esq., and Col. Wharton J. Greene have set a good example to newspaper correspondents—that of putting their names in full to whatever they may write. We admire the independence and manliness which prompt it, and heartily wish that every editor and publisher in the land would refuse to print any communication, especially any in regard to public men or measures, unless the writer would put his name to it. 'Twould be vastly beneficial to the press of the State, on various accounts."

It is nothing but fair and right that correspondents who either praise or censure public men or measures should append their own names, that every reader may estimate the weight to be put upon the writer's opinions. It generally happens in time of high political excitement that numerous little, one-horse "puffers and blowers" appear in the newspapers, with a multiplicity of words and assertions which often mislead many sensible men, by creating a fictitious belief that thus-and-so is the will of the people, when in reality it is merely the scribbling of a few interested parties, not entitled to speak for anybody but themselves.

The trouble is that many of our wisest and most influential citizens will not write at all; while it is easy for any aspirant for office to get up letters, declaring that "Everybody is for him!" "All the East wants him," &c. Now if the newspapers would refuse (as the Pee Dee Herald suggests) to print any communication concerning candidates or public measures without the writer's full name attached to it, many a lie would be kept off the types.

SQUARE OUT.

Hon. John Kerr.

Wilson Advance.

We have heard but one opinion in regard to the manner in which Judge Kerr has conducted the present term of our Superior Court, and that has been one of universal praise. Judge Kerr was a favorite with our people before, and the patience, dignity and impartiality, which have marked his course on the bench here for the last two weeks has added, if possible, to his high reputation.

THE GROWLERY.

Municipal Affairs.

I see that you have a complaint column in your paper. That is very right and proper. The people ought to have an opportunity of making their complaints known, in order that their grievances may be remedied if there be a possibility of doing so. I do not know that this is a proper communication to be placed in the "Complaint Column" for the reason that I do not propose a special complaint against any one or any public measure, but a general complaint against the community at large, if such a complaint be allowable.

For the last week our community has been at "fever-heat" over municipal affairs. Nearly every Alderman has his favorite, and every trio of curb-stone politicians have their theory and plans for settling the difficulty.

But did it never occur to you, that our own good citizens are responsible for all this trouble? Whence the origin and the cause of all this wrangle, It lies in the fact that our substantial citizens take no interest in bringing out proper men for candidates. Why do not the property-holders of the community attend the primary meetings, and see that proper men are nominated? Now, I propose to use names in this article, but in doing so, I intend no personal reflection on any one.

For example, let us take the third ward of the city, a ward that contains more valuable property and elects more Aldermen than any other in the city. Who managed the nominating meetings? A lot of boys! Some of them were not even voters, and perhaps not one in a dozen ever paid a cent of taxes into the city Treasuay. Why were not the substantial citizens of the city there to see that proper persons were nominated? Where were such men as Wm. Grimes, W. H. Crow, R. H. Battle, jr., A. M. Lewis, Jno. G. Williams, and numbers of others who are largely interested as property-holders and taxpayers?

In the Fifth Ward the three gentlemen nominated were presented by a lot of boys; I say boys, because they were nothing more,—not one of whom, perhaps, ever paid a dollar of poll tax in their lives, and certainly never one cent on real estate. Why were not the Tuckers there? Why were not T. H. Briggs, Jeff. Fisher, Julius Lewis, Mr. Boylan, T. C. Fuller, P. Cowper and numbers of other gentlemen who are largely interested there, to see that Aldermen were nominated who would look to the taxpayers?

It was a little better in the First Ward, but not much. In that ward no complaint is made of the ticket nominated. They may be, and perhaps are, all good men; but why were not the substantial men of the Ward there? Where were Dr. Hogg, J. M. Heck, Sanhope Pullen, the Haywoods, and many others, who are large tax-payers in that Ward?

If our business men—men who pay the taxes of the city, are willing to quietly remain at home, and permit a lot of boys and street loafers to manage the affairs of the city, then we should not complain.

But the time has arrived when more attention should be paid to these matters, and the sooner the property owners of the city look at the matter in its proper light, and take the management of the city affairs into their own hands, the better it will be for the good order of society and for their pockets.

THE FLORIDA BUSINESS.

Mysterious Telegrams About the Florida Business----A Chance for William E. Chandler to Explain.

New York Herald.

In connection with the proposed Florida investigation there are some telegraphic despatches sent during the period immediately after election, the meaning of which puzzled a good many innocent souls when they were brought out in the investigation of last year, and which it will be well now to have explained, merely to satisfy an idle curiosity, as it were. Here, for instance, is one sent on election day by Mr. Purman, candidate for Congress, to Govin, then election manager, and now United States Consul:—

TALLAHASSEE, November 6, '76.

To Col. MANUEL GOVIN, Key West:—

Draw on Governor Stearns and myself for two hundred more.

W. J. PURMAN.

Here is another from the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, two days after the election:—

Nov. 8, '76.

Judge J. M. EDMUNDS, Chairman Rep. Nat. Ex. Committee, Washington, D. C.:—

In order to prevent frauds we must have money. If Florida is important, authorize me to draw on you for two thousand dollars. Answer.

M. MARTIN.

Chairman Rep. Camp. Committee.

W. J. PURMAN.

Here are several mysterious cipher dispatches from Mr. W. E. Chandler:—

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 12, 1876.

M. A. CLANCY, 5th Av. Hotel, N. Y.:—

Doctors plenty; rainy weather. Is sea smooth? Have Jones ready.

W. E. CHANDLER.

Clancy was the stenographer of the Republican National Committee. But who or what was Jones? Chandler appears to have been anxious about him or it, for he telegraphed again the next day:—

TALLA., 13.

W. A. CLANCY, 5th Ave. Hotel, N. Y.:—

Florida swarming with prominent Democrats. Send some Republican lawyers and eminent men. Send Jones to E. A. Rollins, Philadelphia, Have Arthur Williams warm. Men acting cold.

W. E. CHANDLER.

Chandler's mind was set at rest about Jones the same day by this dispatch from Z. Chandler:—

WASHINGTON, D. C., 13.

Hon. W. E. CHANDLER, Tallahassee, Fla:—

Dispatch received. Jones gone to Philada barney all along the line—sea safe cotton high stiffen oranges men coming.

Z. CHANDLER, Chairman.

The price of cotton seems to have interested most of the Republican statesmen, for on the same day Mr. W. E. Chandler, at Tallahassee, was anxious about the price, and telegraphed to that eminent cotton factor, S. B. Packard, now Consul to Liverpool:

TALLA., 13.

S. B. PACKARD, New Orleans:—

Has Kellogg my letter? Must know positively about cotton.

W. E. CHANDLER.

Mr. Chandler got satisfactory assurances the same day, thus:—

NEW ORLEANS, 13.

EVERETT CHASE, care Gov. Stearns, Talla., Fla.:—

Just received your letter. Think cotton high; how there? K.

NEW ORLEANS, 15 Nov.

EVERETT CHASE, care Gov. Stearns:—

Confident cotton high, only keep it firm there. K.

There is also the following assurance about money, a week after the election, it will be observed:—

Nov. 13, 1876.

To Colonel MANUEL GOVIN, Key West, Fla.:—

Will have funds from Washington in ten days. Draw only fifteen days' sight. Our success certain.

W. J. PURMAN.

On the same day the following to somebody in Columbus:

TALLA., FLA., 13.

A. E. GEE, Columbus, O.:—

William S. Matthews and others of high character rainy.

W. E. CHANDLER.

On the 15th of November another mysterious character is added to "Jones" in the following dispatch:—

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.

HON. W. E. CHANDLER:

Cook and others leave to-night. Robinson will accompany Jones if necessary. Cotton high. Doctors plenty. You must not leave.

Z. CHANDLER, Chmn.

Nine days later Robinson and Jones have Smith added to them, to increase the mystery:—

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

HON W. E. CHANDLER:—

Cotton high. Robinson in Philadelphia. Smith went with Jones to Florida. Z. CHANDLER.

Finally, on the 27th we find that Robinson's first name is William, otherwise Bill we suppose, and that Mr. Chandler has need of Bill in "small cherries," as also of some apples.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 27, 1878.

Z. CHANDLER, Washington, D. C.:

William Robinson in small cherries; probably shall not need him; apples about twenty; best to be ready for any emergency. W. E. CHANELER

The day before Mr. Chandler described to his friend Governor Kellogg a new kind of fever:—

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 26 1878.

Governor W. P. KELLOGG, New Orleans:—

Cold reports here; doctors scarce; cotton fever spreading; raining here. Answer. W. E. CHANDLER.

All this is very mysterious and eminently calculated to excite curiosity. Will not Mr Chandler tell a mystery-hating American public what it all means? Who was Jones? and why should Mr. Chandler at Tallahassee, with his hands full of election business, have been so anxious that Jones should go to Philadelphia to see E. A. Rollins? And who was Smith, who was added to Jones and with him went to Florida? And who was Robinson, surnamed William, who, after sojourning in Philadelphia, was finally wanted in Florida in the shape of "small cherries," and with "apples," apparently of the "twenty" kind, added to him, to be ready for any emergency?

It is tantalizing to read so much and know so little. When he was examined before the House committee, Mr. Chandler refused to testify, on the ground that he was the attorney for nearly all the Republican politicians in Florida. Was it as their attorney that he demanded Jones, Smith and Robinson, surnamed William? By the way, Mr. Chandler ought really to tell us whether his instructions to "have Arthur William warm," were obeyed? Did they set him on a gridiron? or put him in the oven? or what?

The Oldest Man.

If anybody wants to live a couple of centuries (1) let him never overfeed, and (2) let him never get drunk. At least, those are the rules of health laid down by Miguel Solis, a half-breed farmer in the foot-hills of the Sierra Mesila, New Granada, who confesses to being 180 years old, but is believed by his neighbors to be really much older. Dr. Luiz Hernandez, who has recently paid him a visit, found him at work in his orchard; his skin was the color of parchment, but he was robust and active; his snow-white hair was twisted turban-fashion round his head, and his eyes were so bright that the doctor felt quite uncomfortable when they were turned upon him. Miguel said that the secret of his living a century or two was very simple—simply never getting drunk and never overfeeding. "I eat only once a day, a big, hearty meal, which it often takes me half an hour to get through with; but, you see it is not possible in half an hour to eat more than you can digest in the next twenty-four." He went on to say that he had not made up his mind about meat, but did not eat much of it. He fasted on the first and middle days of each month, eating nothing, but drinking all the water he could swallow. He always let cooked food cool before tasting it; and to this precaution he attributed the fact that his teeth are as sound now as they were 180 years ago. Dr. Hernandez was informed by some of the oldest inhabitants of the district that they well remembered Miguel as a reputed centenarian when they were boys; also that the name of Miguel Solis, colored farmer, appears in a writ, still preserved, of the contributors to the building fund of a Franciscan monastery near San Sebastian, which was founded in 1712, and that the present abbot is positive it is the same man. But protracted as has been his sojourn on earth, he has not succeeded in winning the respect of his fellow-beings. The Indians in the neighborhood firmly believe that he has sold his soul to the devil.

At Shelbyville, Ind., Thursday night, a man named Wagner, who has been a resident, living in gorgeous style in that city, was caught by a posse of officers and citizens in an attempt to starve to death his own daughter, who is the owner of the property of which he has been enjoying the possession. Several weeks ago his daughter, aged but fourteen years, was locked in a room by the father and step-mother, where she has been confined in hunger and filth ever since. At 10 o'clock Thursday night the enraged populace went to his residence, forced an entrance, and took the poor girl from confinement. Monday morning a party of young men, armed with shotguns and carrying a rope, proceeded to his residence, and only through the utmost exertions of the city marshal and his assistants was the mob prevented from dealing out summary punishment. Wagner was escorted to the depot, surrounded by a posse of 40 men and 500 persons, and compelled to leave the city. His wife refused to go with him.

A young Canadian eight-year-old takes the palm for cruelty. She is the child of Mr. Charles Frost, of Berlin, Ont., and being left with the care of a sister of five, became angered because it interfered with her frolics with her companions. She determined to rid herself of the encumbrance, and began to abuse the child in the most fiendish manner. First, she filled its mouth with snow, next dipped it into a quantity of water until was nearly drowned. Then it was placed in the oven of the stove and burned and bruised, and next thrust under the stove. All these devices failing, she went for a saw to saw its head off, but relented, and hit upon the plan of placing it in a bag and dragging it about the room. She was engaged in this pleasant amusement when the horror-stricken mother returned. Of course the injuries proved fatal.

The Supreme Court of South Carolina has decided that Confederate currency was not money, in a legal sense, and therefore receiving Confederate currency at its nominal value was not payment, in a legal sense. In legal contemplation Confederate currency was a mere commodity, used by the community as a matter of necessity or convenience, as a medium of exchange. In converting a security into Confederate currency the same rules should have been observed as in case of barter or exchange of one kind of property into another, not having the legal character of money. Investments in lands and slaves engaged in their culture were appropriate and safe for the purpose of security. A trustee is not entitled to commissions either at law or in equity when he has been guilty of a clear breach of trust.

Something Artistic.

Mr. G. W. King, whose workshop is in the rear of the store of Messrs. T. H. Briggs & Sons, showed us on yesterday some gaffs of his own make. The owners of game cocks in our city say that his excel all other makes they have ever seen; somebow or other he sets them just exactly O. K. Orders from a distance will receive prompt attention. He uses the best steel.

Mosely to the Front.

Has opened at Carmer's old stand a first class Ice Cream and Soda Water Saloon. Shall be pleased to see old friends and customers and as many new ones who feel disposed to encourage an institution very much needed in the City of Oaks. All cordially invited to call. Families supplied at short notice. Prices to suit the times.

At MOSELY'S.

Lumsden's "Old North State Cook Stove" still leads the market as the best and cheapest stove. Lumsden makes a specialty of repairing Sewing Machines of any pattern, Guns, Pistols, Locks, &c. All work warranted. He has just received a large lot of mocking and canary bird cages, fly traps, dish covers, fishing tackle, brooms, baskets, and every thing you want in the house furnishing line can be found at Lumsden's, cheaper than such goods were ever sold before.

A. C. Sanders & Co., have secured the agency for Gail & Ax's celebrated Scotch Snuff, put up tin boxes and bladders. They have now a fresh stock on hand, and are prepared to sell to merchants at Factory prices. They guarantee this Snuff equal to any on the market.

SEVERAL valuable contributions are unavoidably held over for want of space in which to print them.

ONE of the great newspapers men of the country, of a past generation, was written to, to know what he would pay for contributions. His reply was: "From twenty to fifty dollars per quarter column; five to ten dollars for half column; fifty cents to a dollar per column."

SOME of the correspondents of the NEWS write on postal cards, an example worthy of imitation. The NEWS could easily accommodate a hundred correspondents every week on postal cards, whereas it is impossible to promptly publish all the long letters and political articles that come to the paper, anxious as it is to do so. Brief, pointed correspondence is invited from everybody in the State who may feel inclined to write in the press.

IN alluding to the candidates for Solicitor, in the Goldsboro district, yesterday, the name of John D. Kerr, of Goldsboro, was omitted from the list. The writer had confounded the name with the brother of Mr. Kerr, residing at Clinton, and had labored under the misapprehension that the candidature of Mr. Kerr had reference to another district. A correspondent sets the matter right, and does Mr. Kerr a deserved compliment in presenting his merits, which the NEWS thanks him for having done.

THAT is refreshing reading, which presents, on the first page of the News, some of the cypher telegrams that passed between the Republican managers at Washington, New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere, and the manipulators of election returns, sent down to Florida and Louisiana, by Grant, to see "a fair count." Perhaps an interpretation of these dispatches may be had during the coming investigation, and much more rascality made manifest than is even now apparent.

WHATEVER may be the result of the threatened conflict between England and Russia, sympathy with England must predominate in America. As Commodore Tatnall said, when he went to the relief of the English in China, "blood is thicker than water." We are English by tradition, language and the common bond of brotherhood. Whatever shall tend to diminish the power of England, must react on us. Her glory is our inheritance. Her prestige and power maintains the great balance in European government that cannot be disturbed with safety to America and American institutions.

IT is most gratifying to North Carolina pride to note, from the Washington press and the News correspondent, the very distinguished position assigned Dr. Grissom in the National Association of Insane Asylum Superintendents at Washington, in the selection of that gentlemen to deliver the important address of the occasion. The handsome manner in which the speaker acquitted himself must have been pleasing to the North Carolinians present. Verily, the old State is beginning to move up in the line of great States, for her delegation in Congress stands to the fore-front among the best. The cultivation of State pride should and must be the popular growth of our people. The noblest and best people are they who love their State.

THE proneness of the human mind to misunderstanding is something akin to perverseness. As plainly as anything could be stated, the News especially disclaimed any intention or desire to prejudice the Thompson trial, one way or the other, though it went to the extent of wishing that it might be possible to demonstrate his innocence. So far from prejudicing the case with the jury, that was an utter impossibility. In the first place, the jury had the case, and had retired to their room before the paper could reach the town in which they were sitting. Again, every intelligent man knows that jurors in a capital case are not allowed any communication, whatever, with the outside world; nor are they permitted to discuss among themselves the case they are trying, during its progress. Newspapers are always absolutely prohibited jurors on capital cases, and the public was well assured that Judge Kerr would do his duty in this case from the beginning to its end. They can misunderstand, criticise and find fault, who are inclined that way, as much as they please; the purpose of this paragragh is to disavow the cowardly conduct of pursuing a man in the clutches of the law; to reiterate every editorial expression on the Thompson case; to disclaim any object of wounding, or, by the slighest intimation, reflecting in any degree on the relatives and connections of Thompson, who are known to be among some of the best people of Wayne county. Matters of this sort are legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, and in relation thereto the News has a duty to discharge to society and the public, that it will not be apt to neglect.

The Florida and Louisiana Investigation.

It is stated that the committee and sub-committee of the House to investigate the Florida and Louisiana Presidential election frauds will be announced on Monday.

The attempt has been made to prejudice the Democratic party in respect to this proposed investigation. Designs upon the repose of the country have been attributed to us, and charges, that the investigation looked covertly to disturbing the presidency and impeaching the title of Hayes, have been made, to stimulate Democratic sentiment in the hope of influencing the Democrats in the House adverse to the Potter resolution. But the desired effect was not produced, and the country will now settle down to a realization of the true basis, scope and purpose of the investigation.

The well-informed correspondent of the NEWS at the national capital writes yesterday, on the subject, as follows:—As I have heretofore frequently said, no purpose is entertained, as far as I know, to disturb the title of Mr. Hayes. That is recognized as judicially settled. The purpose is to get at the truth,—to expose the guilty,—to hold them up to popular execration,—to prevent similar outrages in the future. Impeachment is not seriously thought of, even if the President is entangled in the meshes of the fraud, in view of the precedent in the Belknap case, that a public officer is not impeachable for crimes committed prior to his official tenure.

National Standard.

This is the name of a new daily, launched at Washington, on Wednesday, in the interest of the new National party. The second number pays a tribute to the Southern Democrats in Congress, which the whole country is beginning to realize as eminently their due.

The South is no unimportant power in the national legislature. She is marching rapidly back to the position she occupied in Congress during the better days of the republic. Not that she will ever regain the control she once exercised over national legislation. Nor is it to be desired that she should. The country has expanded since the days of the Calhoun Democracy; the infant West has grown to be a giant, but that giant is the friend of the South, a younger brother; and with the old disturbing and fatal question of slavery out of the way, there is no longer dissension between the sections. Materially, they are united, and they must, of necessity, always stand in political sympathy with each other. So if she lost her place of first power in the government, the South has gained an ally even more powerful than she in her best days. This power of the South and West is so distributed that the former evil and danger of sectional power no longer exists, and the greater safety of the whole country is better assured.

That the South appreciates the situation, and has come to understand the practical in politics, is well illustrated in the extract hereto appended from the National Standard, which is but a repetition of statements daily met with in the leading presses of the North; and is the expression of a growing, healthy, sober sentiment at the North.

The paper referred to, says:—And now it seems that "the sober second thought" which so emphatically distinguishes the great American people in times of trouble comes from our Southern neighbors, spoken withal in no feeble or uncertain language. From some interviews which will be found in another column, it appears that the South at least desires no impeachment of President Hayes, and entertains no ulterior designs toward the questioning of his right and title to the Presidency. That shirt of Nessus bequeathed to us by the Congress which impeached Andrew Johnson is not, it seems, a garment fit for the Southern wear, with all its train of fatal and disastrous consequences. "The bloody shirt" which they have so long seen waved has taught them many a bitter lesson which they have conned in many an evil hour. Peace and quietness, the healing of their wounds, both social and political, the development of their neglected resources, the rehabilitation of their trade and commerce, are the boons they seek, and not the political convulsions planned by revolutionary demagogues.

The Grangers.

The Patrons of Husbandry assembled in mass meeting at Company Shops yesterday. The Governor, Commissioner of Agriculture and State Lecturer were present and addressed the meeting.

The Grange order has been of great benefit to the State. Nothing in which the farmers engage can possibly tend to evil. They stand upon the bed-rock of the country's existence, and are the source and the sustenance of life. They are the chief stockholders in society. They are the foundation and support of all government. No harm can ever come to any country through its farmers.

The good which the Grange movement has done is not easy of estimation. Its benefits have been social, educational and material. Respecting politics it has been of no perceptible significance. The Grange meetings have brought the farmers together in frequent consultation and discussion, from which each has imparted to the other varied and valuable information. A spirit of rivalry in improvement of lands, implements, stock and increased production has thereby been stimulated among them. Intercourse has enlarged and improved their social relations, tending to the improvement of their homes.

Their daughters and the young farmers have met, become acquainted, liked, loved and wedded. The grange is responsible for many matches, and this is a great compensation, for a country is fortunate in which marriages are of frequent occurrence.

The cause of general education has received its contribution from the increased reading among the farmers and their families. Many books, pamphlets, circulars and papers have been issued and circulated by the grange movement. Called upon to participate in the local grange meetings, farmers and their wives and daughters and sons have appreciated the necessity of posting themselves; have been called upon to speak, hesitated, stammered, and finally getting underway, have astonished themselves. There is no telling the amount of talent and latent intelligence the granges have been the cause of developing.

The beginning of the good the Grange Order has done in North Carolina, in the short space of six years, cannot be told in a newspaper article. The good that will result therefrom, thenceforward, no man can approximate. The Order must go on, improving its own efficiency and contributing to the improvement of its members, and, through them, the great body of Agriculturists in the State. No doubt the Order is in better condition to-day than ever it was. A bee hive is fuller at the living than when the period of real work has begun. The drones disappear. Many were, no doubt, attracted to the Grange, at first, through novelty, and without definite idea or defined purpose. Many non-workers have dropped off. Membership may thereby have been diminished, but the real workers are there, and in greater force than ever. They will go on, increasing and accomplishing greater purposes, for the farmers are not a class of people given to trifling undertakings.

In the great agricultural, manufacturing and commercial industries and interests of our people the News foresees a great, and not far distant future for North Carolina, a future this writer has never for one movement doubted, or lost hope in, but always maintained an abiding faith in the grandeur and glory of the great and good old State.

To Correspondents.

A column in the NEWS contains twelve hundred words. A half column is, therefore, six hundred. Short articles are more read, and with greater pleasure, than long ones. It is a very easy matter for a correspondent to estimate the words in a letter by averaging the words to a line, and multiplying the lines. Frequent letters, of, say half a column, would be better than long letters less frequent, and so enable the paper to present more varied and attractive matter and, withal, of more benefit to every one.

Practical Wisdom.

An ancient adage says, "In time of peace prepare for war." Is it not equally wise to prepare for sickness in time of health? When anticipating a journey, guide books and maps are studiously examined, and all possible information of the route and country obtained. Yet many make the "journey of life" and throughout the entire trip remain almost strangers to themselves, in profound ignorance of their abilities, and have no knowledge of the physiological laws that govern mind and matter. To such, life is like a boy handling an engine, he may have ascertained how to start and stop it, but he knows not how to keep it in running order. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, is designed by its author, as a popular hand-book of anatomy, physiology, hygiene, medicine, and the most common disease to which all are liable, and with which many are afflicted. The work is replete, with sound, practical suggestions. Price, $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. *

A Tranqul Nirevous System

Can never be possessed by those whose digestive and assimilative organs are in a state of chronic disorder. Weak stomachs make weak nerves. To restore vigor and quietude to the latter, the first must be invigorated and regulated. The ordinary sedatives may tranquilize the nerves for a while, but they can never like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, remove the causes of nervous debility. That superb invigorant and corrective of disordered conditions of the alimentary organs has also the effect of imparting tone to the nerves. The delicate tissues of which they are constituted, when weakened in consequence of impoverishment of the blood, resulting from imperfect digestion and assimilation, draw strength from the fund of vitality developed in the system by the Bitters, which imparts the required impetus to the nutritive functions of the stomach, enriches the circulation, and gives tone and regularity to the secretive and evacuative organs.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The University Magazine is to be conducted on an entirely new plan.

——The dead-lock in municipal affairs is still the only topic of conversation.

——We learn that there will be an excursion from Weldon to Raleigh on the 25th.

——Baptist Sunday School of Goldsboro, will reach Raleigh at eleven o'clock, on an excursion.

——The continued coolness and moisture of the weather causes grave apprehension of injury to crops.

——"Business before pleasure," as the man said who kissed his wife before going to see his sweetheart.

——Mr. Sam'l Merrill has been on a visit to New Berne, with a view to purchase the gas works in that city.

——The Statesville American, upon investigating the matter, finds that $45 was the highest price paid for a single vote in the recent municipal election in Charlotte.

——Official notices of the election of the Registrars and Inspectors of Election, lately held by the Justices of the county, are displayed on the Court House bulletin-board.

——Judge W. H. Battle, Hon. John Manning, and Julian S. Carr, Esq., part of the Board of Visitors, made their annual inspection of the workings of the University last week.

——There has been some trouble about the value of the Mexican dollar, merchants in some places in the State refusing to take them at par. They can be bought in New York for 98 cents.

——Passing by the North Carolina book store we noticed quite a display of rare flowers. These, we learned, came from the gardens of Jas. M. Lamb, at Fayetteville, who sends fresh supplies each week for sale. There are many of beauty and variety.

——The full battery of the Cape Fear Light Artillery, of Wilmington, one of the finest in the South, goes to Charlotte to-day, to participate in the celebration of the 20th. There will also parade a "Continental Brigade," attired in antique costumes.

——In the notice of the Baptist picnic of last Friday, we should have spoken of the singing of a number of the blind from the Institution here, in charge of Mrs. Jno. E. Ray. Their vocalization was delightful and greatly appreciated by hundreds of listeners. Among the voices were some of singular purity and sweetness of tone.

Indian Orphan.

Among the orphans at Metropolitan Hall on Monday night, will be a live little Cherokee Indian girl. Go and see her. Encourage the good work of that great philanthropist, Jack Mills.

A Convicted Feminine,

Deputy Sheriff H. S. Dillinger, of Lincoln, yesterday turned over to the Penitentiary authorities, Mahala Wilson, a dusky damsel, who was convicted of the crime of murder and is under sentence of three years. She will now go into the laundry business, probably.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor, Mayor Manly, yesterday morning tried the case of John Nichols, colored, who was charged with cruelly beating his spouse. The evidence in the case was such as to lead His Honor to hold the cruel husband in a bond of $25 for his appearance at next term of Criminal Court.

Market Report.

Mr. C. Battle Fowler, Keeper of the market, reports the following as exposed for sale during the week: Beeves, 44, lambs, 221; hogs 45; sausage, lbs., 1600; fish, bunches, 350. Chickens have been abundant, at from 12½ to 15c.; butter selling from 25 to 30c.; eggs at 12½ to 15c. The supply of vegetables has been excessive, and country trade brisk during the week.

Cotton Report.

The week just closed has been but a dull one in all dealings in this staple, as was to have been expected from the lateness of the season. The receipts have been light, and transactions small. The cotton dealers are now preparing themselves for the summer's siesta. The long period of business dullness is just beginning. The total receipts for the whole week were only 198 bales. The tone of the market was firm and active.

Celebration of the 20th May.

As far as now known, the only observance of this our State "Independence Day," will be by the military. In accordance with General Orders, all the white troops of the Guard in the State will parade. The Raleigh Light Infantry, Capt. Cameron commanding, will give an exhibition drill, concluded by a dress-parade, at St, Mary's. It is probable that a dress parade will be had in the Capitol square, as the command returns to the city.

It is to be hoped that all employers will permit those members of the Company in their employ, to participate in the exercises. There is great complaint at many places in the State of the reluctance of employers to give their men leave of absence. This should not so be. Permission should be readily granted. The parades occur but seldom, and generally after the onerous work of the day is ended. There is a very practical side to the question, also. We must keep our troops in as good a state of military knowledge as possible. This is a recognized fact in all the States of the Union, and if employers will but reflect, their good sense will at once teach them that the purpose of keeping up State troops is not merely for pomp and parade, but for real use and action should danger threaten or trouble arise. The ranks should be full on this day, our only State Anniversary, one that every true North Carolinian ought to take real pride in.

A Lucky City.

We boldly assert, fearless of contradiction, that our city of Raleigh is beyond question the luckiest place in the State. Yet, despite this, there is no place whose people, as a rule, complain more of the stringency of matters financial and the decadence of trade and prosperity. Yet this is causeless, for it is a fact that as far as improvements are concerned we are far ahead of any place in the State. Then as to business; though our trade may not appear superficially to such advantage as that of other cities, yet it is of so substantial a character, that there are none of those breakings-up of business houses, none of those irrevocable financial failures which so retard advancement. There is no wild riot of speculation, but in its stead quiet, sure progress and prosperity are noticeable. We make haste slowly; no glittering enterprises, apparently substantial, arise to delude our people. In their stead are enterprises whose solidity is unquestioned. We have less cause than the people of any community in the State to speak of hard times, for, comparatively speaking, we know them not. The air of prosperity is noticeable, the improvements show our progress, and there are probably no cases of extreme suffering from want. We were led to speak of this by hearing an Eastern man speak of the causes we have for congratulation and assurances of continued good luck.

Religious Notes.

Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D., will occupy his pulpit at the Second Presbyterian Church to-day. The services at 11 A. M. will be particularly interesting, as the occasion is the anniversary of the organization of the church. The sermon will be a special one, and an account of the progress of the work for the past year.

Rev. C. R. Vaughan, D. D., having returned from his Virginia visit, conducts the services at the First Presbyterian. He will preach at 11 A. M., and 8 P. M.

At Edenton Street Methodist Rev. Mr. Dixon, of the Rolesville circuit, will preach to-day.

Bishop Lyman, who leaves on Monday for Europe to attend the "Lambeth Conference," will preach at the Church of the Good Shepherd to-night at 8 o'clock. Seats all free and the public cordially invited.

A number of persons from our city will attend the quarterly meeting of the Methodists, held at Clayton to-day. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor of the Person Street Church here.

The Rev. E. R. Rich, Rector, will conduct the day's services at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Rev. Matt. M. Marshall, D. D., of Christ Church, will occupy his pulpit to-day.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard will conduct the services at the Salisbury Street Baptist in the morning and evening. He will recount his experience at the Convention at Nashville.

Baptist Female Seminary.

The annual commencement exercises of this school in our city will be held June 24th and 25th. The annual address will be delivered by Rev. R. Furman, D. D, of South Carolina. He is spoken of as a divine of rare talent, and his remarks on this occasion will doubtless be characterized by beauty of thought and felicity of expression. This address will be delivered in the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, on the evening of the 24th prox. The exercises at that time will be agreeably interspersed with choice musical performances on the grand organ, at which that talented artist, Prof. Bohlman, will preside. The abilities of this gentleman as a performer are of a high order of merit.

On the evening of the 25th the young ladies give their concert at the College Chapel. The programme of exercises will contain choice selections of both vocal and instrumental music.

National Convention of Asylum Superintendents.

This great body of distinguished guardians of the noble charities for all the States, was in session at Washington, the past week. Dr. Eugene Grissom is a delegate. It was understood that he had been selected to attack a position recently taken by Dr. Hammond, on insanity, and to refute certain statements of that celebrated New York physician, as an expert on insanity. The Washington Post has this reference to the matter.—

Dr. Grissom, of Raleigh, N. C., read a paper on "True and False Experts." The essay referred bitterly to the loose manner in which the vital question of a man's insanity is left to men, who, besides knowing nothing of the disease, are willing, under the title of "experts," to sell their opinions to whoever offers the highest sum.

Bores.

A description of the various kinds of bores, each seemingly the most aggravating, would fill a volume. We call to mind four classes: The exchange fiend; the man who halts one on the street, at busiest moment, to narrate the "best thing out" in the way of anecdote; the party who propounds a question in mathematics, demanding prompt solution; lastly, the greatest of them all, the person who asks geneological conundrums, so to speak, as to the relationship of "my mother-in-law" to somebody's brother's cousin. Some years since, by evil chance, a man met all these bores in one day. There was nothing in the last sad rites sufficiently marked to be noticeable.

Have You Seen Them!!

The splendid assortment of Plows and Castings which W. A. Myatt always keeps on hand. We notice he is a receiving a new supply to-day, also a car load each of Molasses and Flour which he says he can sell low down. *

The Orphans' Concert.

Our people who may be possessed of either musical tastes, liberal dispositions, or of both, will surely patronize the Concert to be given by the Orphans from the Asylum at Oxford, which they give, under the auspices of Superintendent Mills, on Monday evening, at Metropolitan Hall. The price of admission will be only twenty-five cents. The receipts are to be applied to the necessities of this noble charity in which all of us should feel and take a personal interest. The attendance, it is hoped, will be large. The number of orphans who will take part in these exercises is about 15. They will, after the concert at Raleigh, make a tour of the State.

Another Dime Party.

Owing to many and various reasons, the Baby Show, so long talked of, has been indefinitely postponed. In its place the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church and Sunday School propose giving an entertainment on next Wednesday night, (the 22d) similar to the Dime Parties initiated by them and which have always been found so enjoyable. But as this Festival will present some novel and attractive features, we venture to say that it will afford an opportunity for enjoyment even greater than heretofore. There will be music by the choir, for the lovers of that delightful art; lemonade wells, at which all can quench their thirst, ices and refreshments of various kinds; while in place of the babies for show, the "Busy Bee Band" propose to have on hand a bountiful supply of babies for sale.

Personals.

We learn of the illness of Wm. R. Pool, of this county, but it appears not to be serious.

Capt. B. P. Williamson, of our city, is also confined to his house by illness.

Judge W. R. Cox leaves to-day for Charlotte, where he will hold Mecklenburg Superior Court, the term beginning on to-morrow.

Prof. Phillips, of the University at Chapel Hill, is sick.

Colonels D. M. Carter and Walter Clark, after an absence of two weeks attending the courts of Hyde and Halifax respectively, have returned to the city.

Agricultural Department.

Mr. F. A. Whitaker, of this county, has sent in some magnificent red clover, very luxuriant, 3½ feet high. The specimen is by far the finest yet sent in.

Mr. Jas. Norwood, the famous Orange county agriculturist, contributes fine wool fleeces, taken from his choice breeds of Southdown, Cotswold and Silesian Merino sheep, and also from native breeds. The weight and fineness of some of these fleeces are extraordinary.

Col. L. L. Polk, Commissioner, has gone to Alamance county, where he delivers an agricultural address.

Struck a Bonanza.

Nathan Vestal, a North Carolinian, who left this State at the age of 17 years, at the time the gold fever broke out in California, after varied fortune has struck oil, and after taking out $200,000 from his mine sold it for $400,000 and then married a widow who loaned him $400 in the days of his adversity.

False to me, thou've proven,
False indeed thou art,
Yet think not that thy falsity
Shall ever break my heart.

Occurs at once to me,
There're fish as good as e'r were caught,
Still swimming in the sea.
